MOVE TO OWOSSO.

Saturday evening about twenty-five members of the Lady Macabees presented themselves at the home of Mrs. J. C. Holden, who was greatly surprised to have so many callers at once, but quickly made them all cordially welcome. The ladies stayed only long enough to express their sorrow that Mrs. Holden was removing from Yale, to extend the hope that she would find all happiness and prosperity in her new home and leaving her with a little token of their appreciation and respect in the shape of a pretty silver souvenir spoon marked L. O. T. M. M.

Mrs. Holden accepted the gift in the spirit it was given, trusting that Peerless Hive would increase and prosper with the years.

Another surprise came upon Mr. and Mrs. Holden Tuesday. They had been working all day packing household goods, and possibly the thought of supper was far from them, but not so with the good people of the M. E. church, who loaded with chairs and baskets, marched in and proceeded to set tables for a royal good feast. About fifty were present. These good times together are nothing new for the M. E. people but this one was tinged with a little sadness with the thought that it might be a long time before Mr. and Mrs. Holden would be with them again. Rev. Gilchrist in behalf of those present, presented the host and hostess with a set of silver knives and forks. The response from Mr. and Mrs. Holden showed they were deeply affected.

Again on Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holden surprised and honored. At the regular meeting of Yale chapter O. E. S., a farewell reception had been planned for them. A program came after the order of business, of music and recitations, a collation of ice cream and cake was served, and a gift of a handsome Past Matron's badge was given to Mrs. Holden, presented by a associate Matron Pearl McDonald. She acknowledged the gift in a feeling manner, appreciating the thorough good will of the Chapter.

Mrs. Holden has held the office of Secretary this year, which post she has now resigned.

In chronicling these events in honor of our own people of many years (and there may have been other events, we have no need to say that they have the respect and love of the whole city, actions speak for themselves, and it also goes without saying that all regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Holden for a new home in Owosso. Having for so many years made their home in Yale it has seemed to all that a break has come, never to be repaired, but certainly all good wishes go with them and it is hoped Yale will often seem to them a good place to visit.

Series of Sermons at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. P. H. Case begins Sunday evening a series of sermons upon questions that are often asked concerning Christianity and Christian life. It is very important that Christians and those entering upon Christian life should have an intelligent comprehension of what the Christian life means. The first of this series of sermons will be preached Sunday evening, being an answer to the question "What is Christ to me?"

The outline of the sermon will be "What is Christ to me? Christ is a Savior. This implies a need of a Savior. The holiest person who ever lived needed Christ. The Bible teaches that there is no forgiveness without atonement. See John 1:29, Eph. 1:7, Heb. 9:22. He saves us from our sins by bearing them and freeing us from condemnation. (Rom. 8:1) He delivers us from sin's power by giving us the Holy Spirit, making us children of God and gives us power to resist sin and temptation. Our part is to repent of our sins and leave them, and commit ourselves to Christ for pardon and cleansing and for life and service.

In like manner Rev. Case will show that Christ is
1. Our Lord and Master
2. Our Helper, and
3. Our Friend.

The following is the list of subjects and dates:—

May 1. "What is Christ to me?" Evening Service
May 8. "What is it to be a Christian?" Evening Service
May 15. "What are the Essential Helps or Means of Grace for the Christian?" Evening Service
May 22. "Why Unite with the Church?" Evening Service
May 29. "What Are The Duties of a Church Member?" Evening Service
June 5. "What is the Meaning of the Lord's Supper and Baptism?" Morning Service
June 12. "Communion and Reception of the Members." Morning Service

OBITUARY.

He still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Mrs. Euphemia Teetzel, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Tunis, in Wayne, Mich., on Friday April 22, 1910, after only ten days sickness from cancer of the stomach. Had she lived until August 25, she would have arrived at the age of 79 years.

Deceased was the widow of John Teetzel who died in Yale about twelve years ago. The children, all grown up, who are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother are Mrs. Eli Wait, Henry Teetzel, of Battle Creek and Mrs. Chas. Tunis, of Wayne.

The funeral services were held at Wayne and the body brought to Yale Monday night and on Tuesday laid to rest in the family lot at Elmwood beside her husband.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Frances B. Todd desires to express her gratitude to the many friends and neighbors who were so kind during the sickness and after the death of her husband, James Todd, in assisting and sympathizing with her; also to all who furnished floral offerings.

I'm a Pilgrim and I'm a Stranger.

"For the first time since the memory of our oldest boy runneth not to the contrary, we attended the Methodist church last Sunday morning, and what we saw and heard and felt made us ashamed that we have so long neglected this pleasure, especially as it is 'without money and without price.' The song by Miss Edith Cope, 'I'm a Pilgrim,' was one of the sweetest and most touching we have ever heard sung at a sacred service, and we felt doubly paid for the sacrifices we had undergone in blacking our shoes, taking our 'annual' and otherwise getting ourself in a church goable condition. Miss Cope has a rich, clear, cultivated voice, and in a modest, unassuming manner she rendered this song so beautifully pathetic that the sentiment of it went straight to the hearts of the congregation, and toned us up to receive the splendid sermon by Dr. Ridley. We left the church feeling once more like a good old shouting Methodist, and promised ourself, our wife and our babies that we wouldn't miss another service during this year.

The above article was taken from a Rusk, Texas, newspaper and refers to Edith Cope, youngest daughter of Mr. H. A. Cope of Brockway town. The young lady has been away from Yale about four years.

"Mothers' Day."

Two weeks from the coming Sunday is Mothers' day which has been observed in Yale and universally throughout the United States and in Canada. The emblem of the day is a white carnation, symbol of a true mother's virtues. It is a good custom, rapidly growing; that of honoring the living rather than waiting until a person is dead before due praise is given.

Beautifying the Home with Paints and Finishes.

It is really remarkable what transformations may be made, now-a-days, with paints and finishes. Richards Bros. are showing this week in the center of their window a beautifully finished panel showing results that can be easily secured by anyone over old painted surfaces or on old bare wood. It is one of the handsomest and most practical displays we have seen and reflects great credit both to Richards Bros. and to Acme Quality Paints and Finishes.

The extensive newspaper advertising being done by Richards Bros. in behalf of Acme Quality goods is producing excellent results.
